Practice Management

Developing and Growing Your Family Law Practice

By Jennifer A. Brandt, Family Lawyer

It's important for the modern family lawyer to develop a marketing-consistent strategy and embrace technology as a powerful promotional tool, rather than allowing a limited online presence to potentially hurt your reputation.

Technology

How Computer Forensics Can Influence Your Client's Case

By Brook T. Schaub, Certified eDiscovery Specialist

Computer forensics and eDiscovery can play an important role in the outcome of your client's divorce or family law case, revealing key details that might otherwise remain buried.

Custody Issues

Reunification in Parental Alienation Cases

By Jamie Isicoff, Family Lawyer

The trending approach to reunification in parental alienation cases: intensive workshops, comprehensive court orders, and aftercare plans.

Pension & QDROs

The Civil Service Retirement System Coverage Gap

By Mark Altschuler, Actuary

There are several methods available to address the potential coverage gap for former spouses of civil service employees who terminate CSRS service and pass away before qualifying for retirement benefits.
