Business Coaching

No Value Equals No Business

By Liz Wendling, Business Development Coach

As a divorce attorney, the value you provide is infinitely more important than the fees you charge. Find out what your clients value – and then give it to them.

Valuation

Fairness and Economic Reality in Business Valuation

By Charles F. Vuotto, Family Lawyer

In order to be fair, the valuation expert's opinion must result in a value that is the cash equivalent of what the business owner could receive as of the agreed upon cut-off date.

Trusts and Estates

Protecting the Estate During and After Divorce

By Heather Locus, Wealth Manager

As you help your clients create their next chapter, it's important to understand the ramifications of their financial and estate documents.

Health & Well-Being

The Importance of Breathing

By James Gray Robinson, Consultant and Speaker

While there are many strategies to help lawyers cope with stress, breathing techniques are one of the simplest and most effective methods to reduce stress and blood pressure, and increase the flow of oxygen to the brain.
